Hildegard of Bingen (1098-1179)

Hildegard was a remarkably talented, extraordinary woman with boundless energy. In her own time she was noted as a musician, composer, visionary, writer, naturalist and prophet. She maintained correspondence with clergy, monarchs and popes, never hesitating to admonish them as her visions moved her. Between 1152 and 1162 she left her monastery and journeyed through the Rhineland (Germany), preaching publicly against lazy and corrupt clergy, including bishops.

Hildegard was recognized as a saint and Doctor of the Church by Pope Benedict XVI on October 7, 2012. She is accorded this title along with Teresa of Avila, Catherine of Siena and Therese of Lieux.
